

CMAL CEO RAISES £1280 FOR LOCAL CHARITY

Categories : Press

Date : 19th September 2017

CMAL chief executive Kevin Hobbs has raised an incredible £1,280 for Inverclyde Foodbank after completing a sponsored spin-a-thon.

Kevin peddled for eight hours non-stop to raise cash for the community charity, which provides emergency food and support to people in Inverclyde.

The amount was enough to buy three trolleys of necessities, with enough left over for a cash donation to the charity.

Well done, Kevin!